The Two Reports
of the Spies

Sunday School Lesson for Sept. 1, 1927 Specially Prepared for This Paper

LESSON TEXT.—Numbers 13:1-25.
3:35. Memory Verse.—3:17.
GOLDEN TEXT.—"The Lord is with us; fear them not."—Num. 14:9.

TIME.—July or August. "The Time of the first ripe grapes" (Num. 13:20). B. C.
1000 by the common chronology. This was two or three months after they left Sinai on the 24th day of the second month, sometime in May.

PLACE.—Kadesh-barnea. An 11-day journey (Deut. 1:2) of continued travel, as modern travelers have found (Robinson was exactly 11 days); i. e., 190 or 170 miles route from Sinai. It is 30 miles south of Beersheba, on the southern border of Palestine.

Comment and Suggestive Thought.
For two or three months the people of Israel, men, women, and children, slowly marched through "the great and terrible wilderness" from Sinai, a journey which ordinary travelers could make in eleven days. The slow march and long rests were necessary both on account of the children and the flocks, and on account of the need of longer training. Moreover, the difficulties and privations of the desert would make them more anxious to enter the "land flowing with milk and honey."

Kadesh-barnea. At length, some time in July or August, they reached Kadesh-barnea, Ain Qadees, 50 miles south of Beersheba, just at the foot of the range of hills which are the southern boundary of Palestine.

From Kadesh the people can see, rising before them toward the northwest, the steep ascent which leads into the hill country, the destined inheritance of the tribe of Judah.

The gates to their new home were before them, wide open. The fertile oasis to which they had come was a foretaste of their inheritance. Only a steep climb and they can set their feet on the land of promise.

Then Moses said unto them: "Behold, Jehovah thy God hath set the land before thee; go up, take possession, as Jehovah, the God of thy fathers, hath spoken unto thee; fear not, neither be dismayed."—(Deut.
1:21.)

They had only to trust God and go forward, and in less than two years from leaving Egypt the land would have been theirs. The God who had delivered them with a mighty hand, who had made a path through the sea, who had rained manna, and brought water from a rock, and spoken from Sinai, and entered into covenant with them, and was leading them by his visible presence,—he bade them go up and take possession of the promised land.

The people were afraid to go forward. They were not a warlike people. Abraham's attack on Chedorlamer and his army in rescue of Lot, in the far distant past, and their battle with the Amalekites, a year before this time, are the only battles recorded in the whole history of their race.
The whole people (Deut. 1:22) asked Moses to first send out spies to investigate. This was wise under the circumstances, that is, the next wisest thing to going forward trusting in God, and therefore Moses agreed to the plan (Deut. 1:23), and it was so directed by God (Num. 13:1, 2).

The Committee of Investigation.— Accordingly, Moses selected twelve leading men best fitted for the service, whose names are given in vs.
4-15.

"Spy Out the Land."—The object of this expedition was (1) to learn what were the attractions of the country; (2) the difficulties in the way of taking possession; (3) the best ways of reaching the country; (4) the preparations it was necessary to make.
"Get you up this way southward." Better as in R. V., by the south, not referring at all to the direction from the Israelite's camp, but to a well-defined tract of territory forming the southernmost and least fertile portion of the land of Canaan. It was called "The Negeb" or the South Country, literally, "the dryness." In the same way we speak of "the South," no matter in what direction we approach it.

The Two Reports.—The timid spies were like Elshah's servant (2 Kings 6:16, 17), who saw the enemy, but did not see the heavenly chariots and horsemen ranged on the hills round about. They saw the giants, but were blind to God.

The report was evil because it omitted the essential factor in the case.

The minority report of Caleb and Joshua was a good report because, while it accepted all the material facts of the other, it embodied the one essential of faith in God with its outcome of obedience and courage.

The difference between the two lay in this: that the ten looked at God through the difficulties, as when you look at the sun through a reversed telescope, and it seems indefinitely distant and shorn of its glory; while the two looked at difficulties through God.—F. B. Meyer.

Practical Points.
God summons us to go up now, immediately, and possess the land, eternal life began in this world and in our youth.

It is right that we should know the difficulties and dangers and self-denials, as well as the good things in the land to which we are called.

Every real good, like success, education, usefulness, has great difficulties and many enemies in the way.
Those make an evil report who see the enemies more clearly than the goodness of the land, and than the power and love of God.

paper writer and traveler, committed suicide in Cincinnati.

A coroner's jury freed Mrs. Madeline Wassner Langlotz, who shot and killed her father after he had killed her mother in New York.

Criminal and civil proceedings against all persons concerned in the fraudulent transactions in connection with the construction and furnishing of Pennsylvania's $13,000,000 capitol were recommended in the final report of the capitol investigation commission, made to Gov. Stuart, who promised that action should be prompt and vigorous.

That the practices of the Macathon County Railroad company, owned by Lieut. Gov. W. D. Connor, are "unlawful, inequitable and socially and economically parasitic" was the conclusion of a decision handed down by the Wisconsin railroad commission.

Standard Oil company by Judge Landis at Chicago was received at the treasury department in Washington from an unknown sender. It was mailed at Toledo, O.

Miss Elizabeth Gallighan, of St.
Louis, leaped too near a fast revolving fly wheel in the shoe factory in which she is employed and her entire scalp was torn from her head. The scalp was removed from the fly wheel intact and surgeons performed a rare operation by sewing it back in place.

Attorney General Bonaparte, replying to criticisms of Wall street, asserted that his department would continue to prosecute wealthy men and corporations that violate the laws, and that honest business men should be glad of it.

endorf, at Ramseys, N. J.

The illa peculiar to women, take different forms.
Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express.
Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.

cheaper grade of stock. It is worth your while to investigate.

RUBBER STAMPS

Rubber stamps are a great convenience for certain purposes. They are not suitable for printing your letter heads and envelopes. Neatly printed stationery looks business-like and is cheaper, all things considered, than buying blank stock and stamping it yourself.

However, we furnish rubber stamps at 1 cents for a single line 3 inches or less in length. 25 cents for 3 lines 3 inches or less.

What Would
You Do

If three good physicians should pronounce your case hopeless. If they should decide that you could not live longer than six weeks. And if you should get well, after using only $12.00 worth of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine, what would you advise a friend in like condition to do?

"I have to thank you for saving my wife's life two years ago. We had continued with the doctor until the third doctor, like the two previous ones, said that nothing could be done for her; that she had better be taken home from the hospital to quietly wait her time, which would not be over 6 weeks at the most. I brought her home, and then I thought probably Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine might help her, so I got a bottle of each and some Nerve and Liver Pills and commenced to give them to her.
We soon saw an improvement, and encouraged by this we continued giving the medicine. We gave her eleven bottles in all of the medicine. She takes it occasionally now if she feels the need. I am 62, the ministry, and have been for 44 years."
